7. Nature of the Proceedings

a. Nature of the Proceedings

In May and June 2018, Plaintiff Skatteforvaltningen (“SKAT”) filed 140 similar complaints in eleven different federal judicial districts. On October 3, 2018, the federal complaints were consolidated in this Multi-District Litigation (“MDL”) and assigned to the Honorable Lewis A. Kaplan. In February 2019, SKAT filed 43 additional complaints, which were consolidated into the MDL assigned to Judge Kaplan. On November 19, 2019, SKAT filed another complaint in the Southern District of New York, which has also been incorporated into the MDL.

This case stems from a fraudulent tax refund scheme to deceive SKAT into paying out over 12.7 billion Danish Kroner (“DKK”), the equivalent of approximately $2.1 billion (US) of allegedly withheld dividend tax. Each of over 300 claimants purported to own shares in Danish companies listed on the OMX Copenhagen 20 Index, the 20 most-traded stocks in Denmark. Danish companies are required to withhold 27% tax on dividends they pay to shareholders. Under certain double taxation treaties between Denmark and other countries, including the United States, this amount is reimbursable to certain non-Danish shareholders. The claimants, acting through their agents and representatives, applied to SKAT claiming repayments of amounts withheld on dividends that they purported to have earned on shares of Danish companies that they claimed to hold. These applications are alleged to have been fraudulent because the claimants did not own the shares that they claimed to own, did not earn the dividends they claimed to have earned, and/or were not entitled to the refund amounts they claimed. Based on the allegedly false refund claims submitted by the defendants in the MDL, SKAT asserts that it paid baseless withholding tax refund claims of approximately $1.2 billion (US). Claimants, that were based in the United States, along with certain of their authorized representatives and other affiliated individuals and entities, are the Defendants in this MDL.

The claimants effectuated the scheme by appointing agents to apply to SKAT for refunds in respect of shares in Danish companies that they did not own or for which they were not otherwise entitled. The claimants each submitted refund claims seeking the full 27% withholding tax that had allegedly been withheld from distributions on shares of Danish companies the claimants purported to own. These claims were submitted through payment agents, which in turn submitted the claims to SKAT. Each entity claiming a withholding tax refund submitted to SKAT a “credit advice,” “income advice,” “tax voucher,” or similar document (a “Credit Advice”) created by a custodian (“Custodian”) that purported to show the claimant’s ownership of shares in Danish companies listed on the OMX Copenhagen 20 Index. Certain Custodians in this case, however, have indicated that the Custodians themselves did not have custody of the securities reflected on their Credit Advices, but instead that they had custody accounts with other credit institutions (the “Sub-Custodians”) where the securities were held. Specifically, JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. – London Branch (“J.P. Morgan”) is alleged to have served as a Sub-Custodian that held Danish Securities on behalf of certain Custodians, and by extension, certain Defendants in this MDL. As such, information related to the securities held by the Sub-Custodians, such as J.P. Morgan, is relevant to the issue as to whether the Defendants held the shares they purported to own, and so is pertinent to the claims in the MDL.

b. Summary of Complaints

The allegations in SKAT’s complaints in the consolidated actions are substantially similar. SKAT brought complaints against multiple classes of defendants that are subject to jurisdiction in the United States, including: “Plan Defendants,” the pension plans that submitted fraudulent dividend withholding tax refund claims to SKAT; “Authorized Representative Defendants,” individuals who signed powers of attorney authorizing payment agents to submit fraudulent dividend withholding tax refund claims to SKAT; and “Incorporator Defendants,” defendants who incorporated business entities associated with the Plan Defendants that submitted fraudulent dividend withholding tax refund claims to SKAT; as well as other affiliated individuals and entities. The complaints allege that between 2012 and 2015, Defendants submitted fraudulent requests for tax refunds to SKAT. Plaintiff SKAT asserts claims for fraud, aiding and abetting fraud, payment by mistake, unjust enrichment, negligent misrepresentation, and related claims.

c. Summary of Defense

The Defendants have been heard in the context of this proceeding by way of their respective answers and responses to the complaints, and deny the facts set forth in support of the claims asserted in the complaints.
